

EURATEX

VOICE OF THE EUROPEAN APPAREL
AND TEXTILE INDUSTRY

EURATEX - the European Apparel and Textile Confederation - works to achieve a favourable environment within the European Union for design, development, manufacture and marketing of textile and clothing products. Through its membership, it represents 197.000 European companies with a combined turnover of €170b. Working together with EU institutions and other European and international stakeholders, EURATEX focuses on clear priorities: an ambitious industrial policy, sustainable supply chains, effective research, innovation and skills development, free and fair trade (www.euratex.eu).

EURATEX welcomes a motivated and dynamic candidate for

TRAINEESHIP ON SUSTAINABLE BUSINESSES

Reporting to the Director of Sustainable Business and to Policy Officer, she/he will be responsible for:

Duties

- Supporting the EURATEX advocacy on priority sustainability dossiers such as: Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) schemes/ Waste Framework Directive, Ecodesign (ESPR), Due Diligence (CSDDD, CSRD)
- Supporting managing working group/s composed by member associations and other experts;
- Monitoring policy developments and conveying complex messages into “layman” terms for different audiences

Education and experience

- Both technical education and other policy making education backgrounds are considered
- proven successful work experience in sustainability policy making is required.

Requirements

- At least 1 year of relevant working experience within EU regulatory affairs and sustainability;
- previous work experiences in companies or industry association or an EU Institution;
- Excellent command of written and spoken English;
- Work experience in international business environment (including EU institutions) is an asset
- Based in Brussels or able to relocate in Brussels swiftly.

Skills

- Team player, ability to work independently and smooth coordinating with colleagues, members and supervisor;
- Ability to assess EU policies, manage technical issues and convey in simple language;
- Takes responsibility and accountability for his/her actions;
- Good communication and interpersonal skills, particular emphasis on cross-cultural sensitivity;
- Ability to prioritise workload, follow guidelines, be proactive and problem-solving.

EURATEX

VOICE OF THE EUROPEAN APPAREL
AND TEXTILE INDUSTRY

The traineeship opportunity is planned for six-months, full-time starting as of September 2024, located in Brussels. EURATEX offers a salary package based on the experience of the selected candidate, and the possibility to extend the professional collaboration after the traineeship.

Applications with CV and a brief letter of motivation should be addressed to the Office Manager elena.tosevski@euratex.eu at earliest convenience. Interviews with selected candidates will be starting as soon as possible.

Applicants hereby consent that their personal data are processed by EURATEX for recruitment purposes. Regretfully, only shortlisted candidates will be contacted. EURATEX pursues gender balance and diversity in its recruitment policy.

---